☆ ☆ PREFACE ☆ ☆

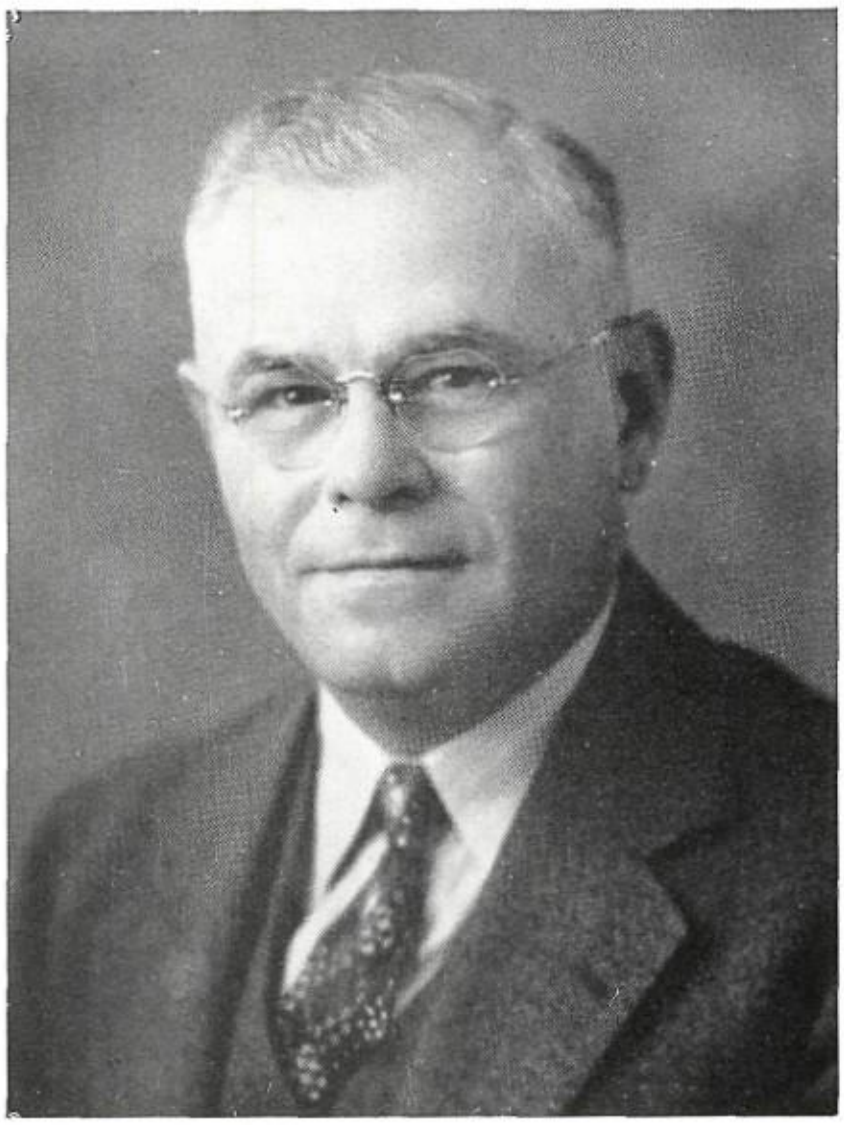
The days of the 1947 school year, like the pages of a book, have fluttered almost to a close; the cover is about to descend upon them forever. The year's trophies are carefully placed in the trophy case for next year's students to look at. The last "Yea, Purple" has died into a lingering echo in the ears of the triumphant Panthers. Three hundred-odd students are attending their class, walking Paschal's halls for the last time before their eager hands clutch the long-awaited diploma.

To those students, the year 1947 is fast dissolving into a memory—a memory which this edition of the Panther seeks to preserve for them forever. Here are intimate glimpses of the life of a great school as you, a great student body, have lived it. We give you the 1947 Panther.

☆ ☆ DEDICATION ☆ ☆

To William M. Green, who for more than thirty years directed the Fort Worth public schools as superintendent, this 1947 Panther is dedicated with affection for his friendship and with sorrow for his passing.

☆ ☆ ADMINISTRATION ☆ ☆



Mr. O. D. Wyatt, principal—the "brains" behind the Honor System—kindly confidant of boys and girls alike—understanding adviser and comforter—lover of fish stories and tall tales—educator and administrator of integrity—will live forever in the hearts of all Paschal graduates.

☆ ☆ ADMINISTRATION ☆ ☆

MISS GRACE BURKETT

The qualities of patience, understanding, and sympathy have made Miss Burkett a well loved and respected Dean of Girls.

MR. ROY STONE

Keen insight into his boys' problems and the ability to counsel them wisely have made Mr. Stone, Vice-principal, Mr. Wyatt's silent partner.

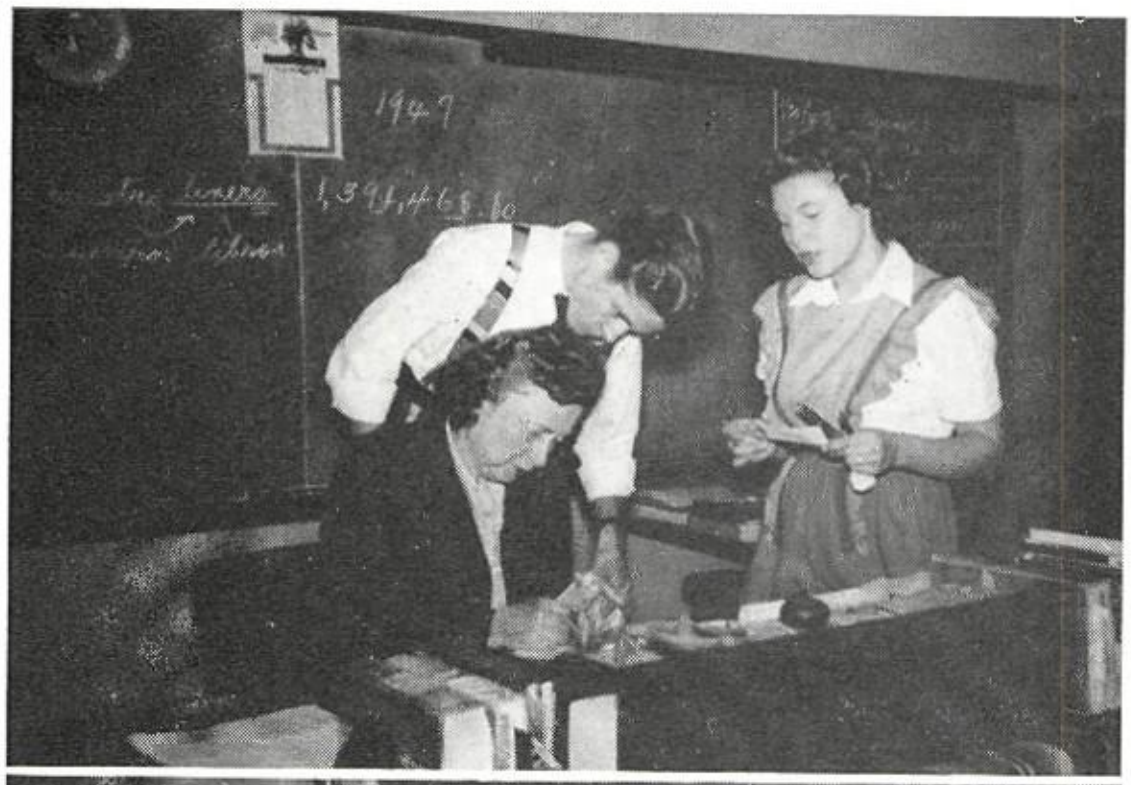
☆ STUDENT ACTIVITIES ☆

Exes pay off at Homecoming.

What cha been doin' since ya graduated?

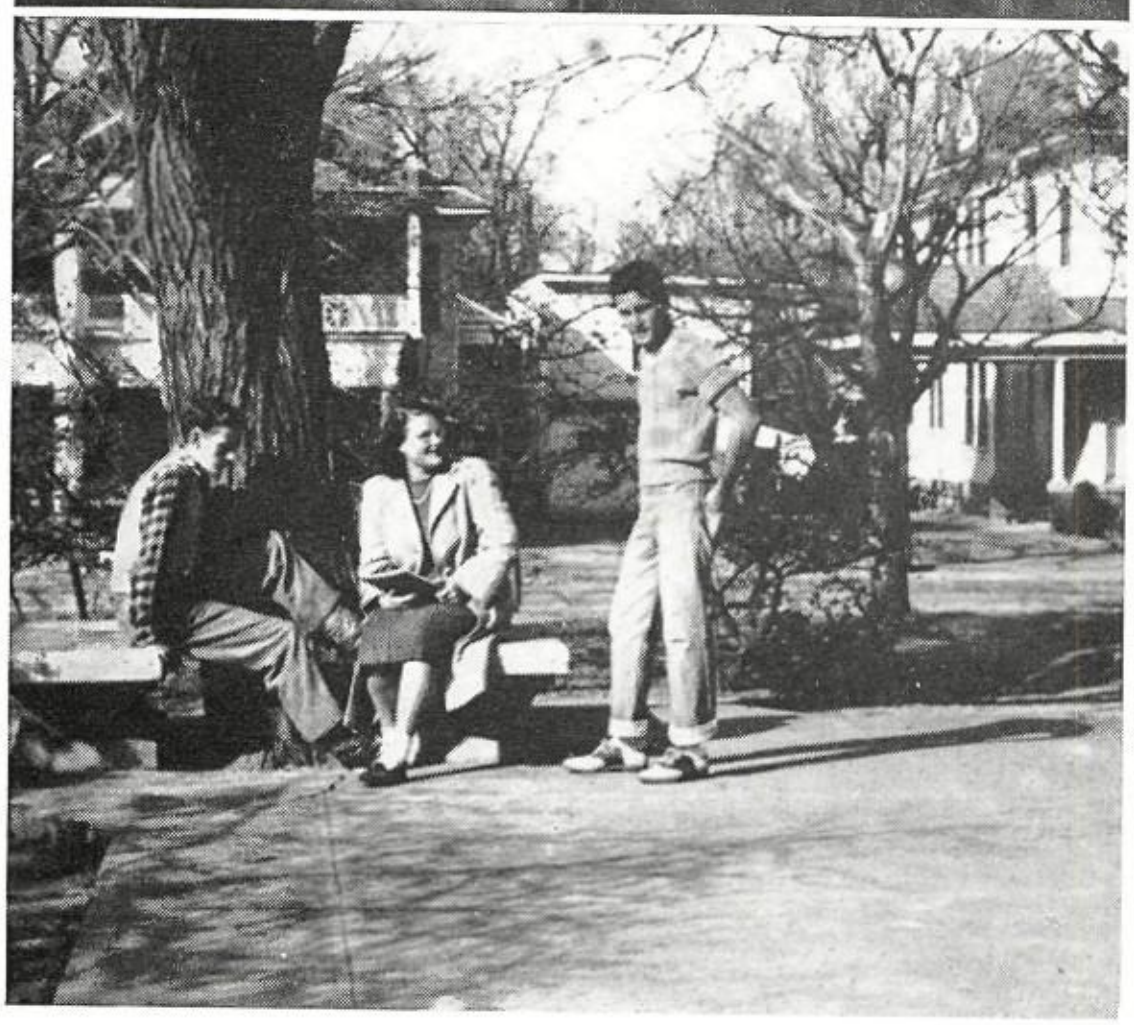
We envy you.

☆ STUDENT ACTIVITIES ☆



South of the border on registration day. Bomar signs up budding linguists.

Is Miss King going to sign up for American I?



Give us a big smile, Neon-nose.

CADETS

Although the cadet corps numbered less than 200 at the beginning of the fall semester —the smallest enrollment in years—such radical developments as raising credit for R.O.T.C. from one-eighth to one-fourth, issuing khaki uniforms, and making a commissioned Army officer, Brock H. Faulkner, chief instructor, placed a new emphasis on the importance of the R.O.T.C. Also many new weapons were added and the course was generally broadened, with the ultimate purpose of winning back the coveted honor star, denoting a superior R.O.T.C. organization, during Federal Inspection in May.

Paschal's rifle team made a better than average showing during the season, winning second in the city match, third in the American Legion match, and placing in the Seventh Army match.

Noteworthy was the formation of officers and non-commissioned officers clubs strictly for entertainment, representative of the lighter side to military training.

ORGANIZATIONS

☆ ☆ PENTA CLUB ☆ ☆

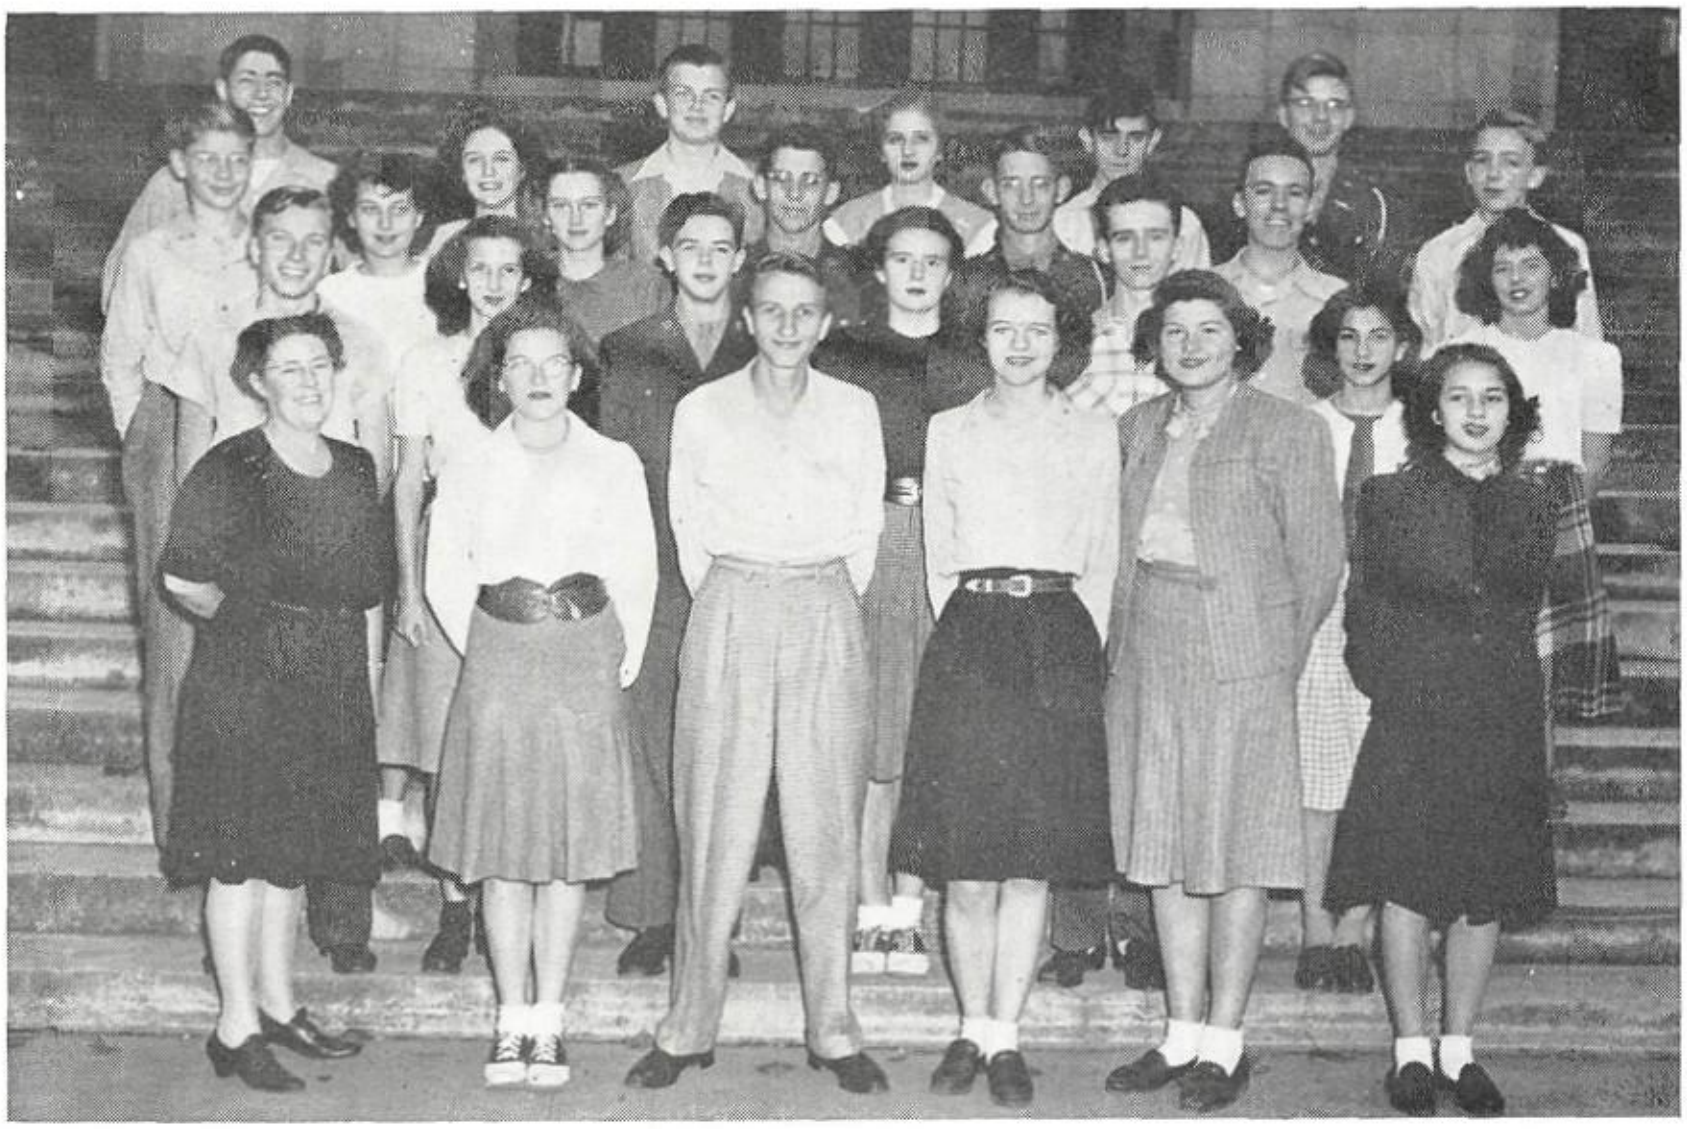
The Penta Club, a junior and senior organization to promote and further interest in mathematics, is composed of Einstein, Jrs.—members must make an "A" average in mathematics during their sophomore year and plan to take math all four years. The club boasts of 34 members.

Officers include Norma Jean Morris, president; Vance Hendricks, vice-president; and Betty Smothers, secretary; while Miss Caroline Gaither is sponsor.

Mathematics Day climaxes all Penta Club activities. This is the day that letters and silver and gold pins are awarded to math pupils making not less than four A-pluses and one A. Slide rules are also awarded then to those pupils who excel in the techniques of the slide rule. Approximately 60 felt letters, 15 silver pins, and 8 gold pins are awarded each year by the club.

Besides sponsoring a slide rule class, Penta members award ribbons each six-weeks to "A"-plus math students. The club made a brief study of astronomy, highlighted by a lecture on meteorites at TCU by Dr. Oscar Monnig, a night trip to McLean Junior High to count the meteorites during the "rain of meteorites," and a speech on the navigation by the stars by Miss Charlie Noble, founder of the Penta Club.

A Christmas party and the annual Penta picture show and dinner party make up the main social events sponsored by the club.



☆ ☆ LITTLE CONGRESS ☆ ☆

"Strictly for Girls" reads the sign that hangs on the door of room 225 every Thursday afternoon as the members of Little Congress discuss the business and doings of the week.

Little "C" was organized as a speech club during its early days. It gave scholarships to girls who were on the debating team, but when the school board dispensed with debates, the motto, scholarships, and speech ideals were dropped.

The motto now is "Doing good for the community." During the year, Little "C" gave to the Red Cross, Goodfellows fund at Christmas, two uniforms for the band, and any other worthy causes that came up.

Misses Claudie Mae Workman and Jimmy Benson have been the sponsors for about ten years. Other than Miss Mary Sweet, the original organizer and sponsor, Misses Workman and Benson have been the only sponsors.

To become a member of Little "C," a girl has to fill out a petition, give a three minute talk in front of the members, and then take and pass a test on its constitution. The membership is limited to 40.

For their social life—a "slumberless' slumber party seems to rate at the top. Once a year a banquet is given at which the president for the following year is elected.

☆ ☆ PAN-AMERICAN CLUB ☆ ☆

Buenos dias? Como estan ustedes?

So begins a meeting of the Pan-American Student Forum, one of Paschal's largest, most active, and most interesting clubs.

Made up of Spanish and history students and sponsored by Miss A. Louise Bomar, Spanish teacher, this group meets on the second Thursday of each month, usually in room 140. Officers, elected for a full year, are Bob Adams, president, Elizabeth Walls, vice president, Bobbie Jean Watts, secretary, and Bea Smith, treasurer.

Acting in capacity of program chairman, Elizabeth Walls plans a varied and unusual entertainment for each meeting. At different times the programs featured vocalists singing Spanish songs, guest speakers, violinists, pianists, Spanish dancers, round table discussions and quizzes.

At Christmas the club enjoyed talks on Christmas customs in South America and Mexico and the ceremony of breaking the traditional pinata, in this case a large purple turkey with curly crepe paper feathers, which was filled with candy and nuts.

The annual contest, sponsored by the Pan-American Student Forums of Texas and held each spring in Austin, is to be well attended by Paschal members. This state-wide affair is scheduled for May 9. Bob Adams and Dan Daggett are to compete in the "information please" division, Mary Ann Morris in the essay section, Betty Steel will enter her poetry, and in the musical field, Marilyn Crill and Peg Ott will play the piano and Doris Cohn will sing.

As the members sing the official club song to close meetings, they set forth the purpose of the organization—to bring about a stronger and more united America, North and South.

☆ ☆ Y-TEENS CLUB ☆ ☆

"The purpose of the Y-Teens organization of Paschal shall be to build a fellowship of girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians"—so reads the preamble of the Y-Teens, one of the most active clubs in Paschal. The Y-Teens, formerly known as the Girl Reserves, boasts a limited membership of thirty. It is sponsored by Mrs. Pensive Robertson, English teacher, and Willa Dean Dudley has presided as president for 1947.

Y-Teens have picnics, parties, and many other socials which keep the members in an active interest for the club. Other activities included an Easter Egg hunt, bowling, and weiner roasts. An all city school activity was the Mother-Daughter banquet on April 23 at the First Presbyterian Church in which the daughters honored their mothers. They also had a Christmas party and a luncheon for the mid-term graduates.

They have followed many city-wide programs and largely base their activities on world fellowship. Their talks in their twice monthly meetings include "Up to Date Dating," "Choosing A College," and "World Fellowship."

They also have sent representatives to other city group club meetings. They participated in the city-wide candle lighting service on December 8 at the First Presbyterian Church. They were represented by Theresa Arington in the "Hanging of the Greens" at the Lena Pope Home. They also sponsored the streamer sales for the football games.

☆ ☆ JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE ☆ ☆

The Junior Classical League, composed of 120 students of Latin and Ancient history, highlights its full year with the annual celebration of Latin Week, May 3-10, when exhibits, contests, and Roman customs are publicized throughout the school.

Programs on ancient civilization have been given monthly at the regular meetings. Mr. Roy M. Stone, vice principal, spoke on his visit to Mount Vesuvius and the ruins of ancient Pompeii.

The club had a party at the home of the sponsors Miss Genie Beck and Miss Anna Gardner in October at which thirty-five new members were initiated. "These parties held each year keep the sponsors guessing as to what sort of nonsense to try next," says Miss Gardner.

The League, a national organization, holds a yearly convention. Harry Rosenstein, Paschal senior, who was elected State Treasurer at the last convention held at Paschal, will serve as one of the delegates, along with Edward Ladd and Eddie Soniat, to the convention to be held in Beaumont this year.

Headed by Margaret Welch, president, the JCL sponsored an All-School Dance, which was held in the Paschal gym on December 13.

Last year during the Latin Week celebration a skit on Julius Caesar was given by the club. The president, assisted by vice president Aileen Welch, Pat Edwards, secretary, and Marian Echols, treasurer, will plan the celebration this year.

☆ ☆ PANTHERETTE STAFF ☆ ☆

The journalism room again became a natural habitat for a number of aspiring young reporters as the Pantherette, Paschal's weekly newspaper, was published for the twenty-seventh consecutive year.

Edited entirely by students in the journalism classes and supervised by Mrs. Margaret Caskey, it became the state champion weekly newspaper in the Texas High School Press Association. Individual winners in the contest were Elston Brooks, first, columns; Allen Person, second, editorials; Gerald Willingham, third, sports columns; and Greg Sherry, third in sports stories and editorials. Joanne Starnes, journalism student, was elected secretary of THSPA at the annual convention in Denton.

The first Pantherette, published in 1926, was sponsored by Miss Agnes Edens, and only two years later, in 1928, the journalism class found existence with Mrs. Minnie E. Tipton as teacher.

A new instructor and a new honor were added in 1942 when Mrs. Caskey turned from Spanish to journalism, and when the publication won International First Place Award in the Quill and Scroll contest. This prize has been given the Pantherette every year since then, from 1942 through 1946.

Another occasion merited more than one proud writer as the Pantherette was announced top winner in the annual Fort Worth Press contest. Individual awards were given Allen Person, first place in front page make up; Elston Brooks, first place for his column, "Babbling Brooks"; Atwell Williams, second place in feature stories; Don Maples, second place in sports stories. Honorable mention in columns, make up, and editorial were won by Greg Sherry.

☆ ☆ HI-Y CLUB ☆ ☆

With a track coach as a sponsor, the Paschal Hi-Y Club got off to a fast start and strode through its first year at Paschal like a veteran organization.

Started after a campaign by the Young Men's Christian Association urging the formation of such an organization at Paschal, Sponsor Earle Meadows, former Paschal student and athlete and still holder of the Olympics vaulting record, found himself with a roomful of Hi-Y enthusiasts. From this organization of boys came President Loran Richards, Vice-President Frank Ball, and Secretary-Treasurer Jim Snodgrass, who successfully led the group through its first Paschal year.

The state Hi-Y convention, which was held in Denton, Texas, on April 11 and 12, was attended by official Paschal delegates Jim Snodgrass and Bob Castellaw, who picked up many pointers which aided in the further organization of the club.

Feature of the group's athletic interests was the winning of the Fort Worth Y.M.C.A.'s basketball tournament in March. Members of the team received individual medals for their championship efforts.

The outstanding social event of the club was held in connection with the Y-Teens, a hay ride and picnic on Feb. 8.

Purposes of the newly-formed organization as stated by Sponsor Meadows is to "Promote and maintain high standards of Christian character throughout the school and the ocmmunity."

☆ ☆ DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION CLUB ☆ ☆

Heading a list of the most unique and worthwhile organizations at Paschal is the Distributive Education Club.

The members of this club have a distinct advantage over other club members as this organization is directly connected with the Distributive Education Class and for this reason they find more time for their club activities. Besides the hour donated from class activity every other Friday to an official club meeting, the members find their class period directly in accord with their club work.

Nancy Withrow has the top hand as she presides as president, while Alfred Bradford, and Wilma Jean Pigg assist as vice-president and secretary-treasurer respectively.

Miss Anna Buckley, distributive education teacher, is the club sponsor.

The purpose of this organization is to discuss and help solve any problems that may arise concerning each members particular job, and to promote better relation and understanding between employer and employee. This idea is carried out during club meetings by talks from outside speakers and moving pictures in which store selling and business organizations are more clearly shown.

The main activities of this club during the school year were a picnic in the fall and a Sadie Hawkins Dance in the spring. The club also sponsored two delegates to the State Distributive Education Convention in Dallas during March.

☆ ☆ GIRLS' GLEE CLUB ☆ ☆

The Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Lois Ruth Mitchell, has done much to bring enjoyment to Paschal's faculty and students as well as business organizations and social clubs in Fort Worth this year.

The Glee Club is entirely composed of girls who are first year students. The following girls are members; Dorothy Baker, Peggy Brewer, Sue Carleton, Reba Nell Clark, June Cobb, Beverly Cooke, Joy Cox, Nancy Daley, Mary K. Dobbs, Jeanne Freebera, Marguerite Frisbie, Helen Harmon, Elizabeth Holcomb, Juanita Jackson, Juanita Louge, Betty Jean Lee, and Mary Nell Lee.

More of the members are Lucille Love, Betty Mattox, Bess McMahon, Frances McMahon, Rachel Moore, Norma Morris, Alma Murphy, Betty Belle Payne, Jean Phillips, Jerry Phillips, Vernell Potthoff, Carol Prigmore, Colleen Robertson, Sara Scott, Diane Soskin, Nan Walton, Jerry White, and Billie Joyce Weise.

The Girls' Glee Club has performed in several school programs; assemblies, the Christmas program, and a program given for the P.T.A. The chorus participated in the All-City Choral Concert and the Paschal Spring Concert, April 10.

Many opportunities are open to these students. This year they participated in the Choral Clinic held at Texas Wesleyan College on April 24th. The Choral Clinic had as its head, the outstanding popular choral conductor Noble Caine.

A selected group of students were taken from the Girl's Glee Club to entertain for business organizations and social clubs in Fort Worth. The girls performed for the Lions Club, and teas at the Texas.

☆ ☆ ORCHESTRA ☆ ☆

Schubert, if he had known, would have smiled in his grave could he have heard the Paschal High Orchestra play the second movement to his Unfinished Symphony on the Annual Spring Concert.

The Paschal High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Lois Ruth Mitchell and Cecil Smyth, concertmaster, consists of fifty members and has complete instrumentation, which enables it to have a varied repertoire, ranging from standard works of the great composers to the lighter classics.

Rehearsing five times a week, the students are an enthusiastic and hard working group. They have appeared on many programs during the year, both school and civic including; the Annual Christmas Program, P.T.A. programs, two graduation programs each year, the All-City Symphony Concert and the Music Department Spring Concert. Outside school they have played for T.W.C., many junior high schools and club programs. They made a solo appearance April 26 in Dallas on the Highlander Music Festival.

The orchestra has often furnished smaller groups (such as the string ensemble) for numerous teas, luncheons and dinner programs.

The orchestra is striving to promote the popularity of better music among the students through fine performances of the works of great masters.

A TRIBUTE

Symbolic of Paschal's famed Honor System, the Courtesy Council stands for all that is good in the school. To that group, representing every home room in Paschal, and to its sponsor, Miss Lois Anne Smith, go the admiration and thanks of the Panther staff for the very great contribution in selling and distributing this publication. This work, which is only one of the many activities undertaken this year, represents many hours of painstaking work.

In addition to taking orders for and later delivering the Panther, the Courtesy Council has worked to revise the Reference Book, sponsored the Safety Drive, the Red Cross Drive, and presented the traditional Courtesy Council wedding.
